

The Lamond GenNext Award

The Lamond GenNext Award (formerly the President’s Innovation Award) honors college students who demonstrate excellence in the field of music. To apply, follow the directions outlined in this document. You are required to show a proven record of leadership and commitment and provide a statement outlining your goals as you explore career opportunities in music, sound, and event technology.

Award details:

- This award supports individuals enrolled in two- or four-year college or university programs and are preparing for a career in the music, sound, and event technology industry.
- Cash awards of $750 are given one time to selected undergraduate and graduate students to support travel needs and expenses to attend The NAMM Show.
- Award recipients participate in professional development sessions, networking, and special events, and have access to the tradeshow floor to explore music products, pro audio, and live event technology exhibits.

Eligibility requirements:

- Must be enrolled for the Summer 2023 or Fall 2023-24 semester at a two-or four-year college or music (education, performance, business), sound or event technology program.
- Have an overall 3.0 or higher GPA.

Submit the following with your application:

- Resume
- Spring or Fall 2023 Transcript
- Two letters of recommendation

If you have any questions, please contact The NAMM Foundation at least 24 hours before the application deadline at info@nammfoundation.org.

Award Recipients

Selected Lamond GenNext Award recipients are notified by Nov. 1, 2023. A grant agreement letter signed by you and co-signed by a faculty member or advisor is required. After this signed agreement is received by The NAMM Foundation, funds will be disbursed to help cover travel related expenses to The 2024 NAMM Show. Please note that Award Recipients will receive a complimentary badge to The NAMM Show. Award recipients are responsible for their own transportation and housing arrangements. Should you leave college prior to completing the Fall 2023 semester and/or not enrolled for the Winter 2024 semester, the award is forfeited, and funds must be returned to The NAMM Foundation.

Lamond GenNext Award winners are student leaders as part of NAMM's GenNext program that engages over 2,500 college music students and faculty in career-expanding opportunities each year at The NAMM Show. Award winners are encouraged to attend all GenNext offerings.

Attendance is required at GenNext events are:

- NAMM President and CEO Meet and Greet
- The Careers in Music Summit

- NAMM YP & Student Mixer
- Networking With the Pros (at least one)

Award recipients are required to submit a post-show report of their experience at The NAMM Show no later than Feb. 1, 2024. Report requirements and submission details will be available online.

Awards are given once during a student's academic career, are nonrenewable and recipients are not eligible to reapply for the same award.
